

Privacy Notice Pupils and Parents/Carers (how we use pupil information) v2.0

Under data protection law, individuals have a right to be informed about how the Trust and its schools use any personal data that is held about them. We, the Tenax Schools Trust, comply with this right by providing Privacy Notices to individuals where we are processing their personal data.

The Trust aims to ensure that all personal data is collected, stored and processed in accordance with the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) and the Data Protection Act 2018. The Tenax Schools Trust is the Data Controller for the purpose of the data protection law and is registered with the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO), the UK's regulatory body.

The categories of personal information that we collect, process, hold and share include:

- Personal identifiers, including name, unique pupil number, address and contact details of parent(s)/carer(s)
- Characteristics, such as ethnicity, language, nationality, country of birth, age, gender, religion and Free School Meal eligibility
- Safeguarding information, such as court orders and professional involvement
- Special Educational Needs information, including needs, plans and support
- Medical Conditions, including physical and mental health or any disabilities, dental health, allergies, medication and dietary requirements
- Attendance information, such as sessions attended, number of absences, absence reasons and any previous schools attended
- Assessment and attainment information, such as internal tests, pupil progress information, internal and external assessment and examination results and end of term/year reports
- Behavioural information, such as welfare records, accident/incident forms, exclusion information and any relevant alternative provision put in place
- Destinations of where pupil intends moving on to once they've left the school
- Information captured via electronic monitoring of school and pupil devices as part of our safeguarding measures in place
- Other including photographs, CCTV images (where installed) captured in school, biometric data (in certain schools)

Why we collect and use this information

The purpose of processing this data is to:

- Support pupil learning and wellbeing
- Meet the statutory duties placed upon us
- Monitor and report on pupil progress and attainment
- Moderate teacher assessment judgements

- Provide appropriate pastoral care and support services
- Keep children safe (eg allergies, or emergency contact details)
- Support, evaluate or improve educational provision
- Support and administer the admissions process
- Get in touch with you when we need to
- Carry out education related research

The lawful basis on which we process this information

We only collect and use personal information about you when the law allows us to. Most commonly, we use it where we need to:

- comply with a legal obligation
- carry out a task in the public interest

Less commonly, we may also use personal information about you where:

- you have given us consent to use it in a certain way
- we need to protect your vital interests (or someone else's interests)

The Trust may also process data for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims.

Some of the reasons listed above for collecting and using personal data overlap and there may be several grounds which justify our use of this data.

Collecting this information

While the majority of the information we collect from you is mandatory, there is some information that you can choose whether or not to provide to us. If there is processing or sharing that relies on consent, we will make this clear to you. Where you have a choice, you may withdraw your consent at any time.

Storing this information

We hold pupil data securely for the set amount of time shown in our record retention schedule. For more information on our record retention schedule and how we keep your data safe please refer to our Data Protection Policy and our Records Management Policy which are available on the Tenax Schools Trust website tenaxschoolstrust.co.uk/our-policies

Securing this information

We have appropriate security measures in place to prevent personal information from being accidentally lost, or used or accessed in an unauthorised way. We limit access to your personal information to those who have a genuine business need to know it. Those processing your information will do so only in an authorised manner and are subject to a duty of confidentiality.

We also have procedures in place to deal with any suspected data security breach. We will notify you and any applicable regulator of a suspected data security breach where we are legally required to do so.

Sharing this information

We do not share personal information with any third party without consent unless the law and our policies allow us to do so. Where it is legally required, or necessary for another reason allowed under data protection law, we may share personal information about you with:

- The Local Authority (LA) to meet our legal obligations to share certain information with it, such as concerns about pupil's safety and exclusion or destination data
- The Department for Education (DfE) and other government agencies to meet our legal obligations as part of data collections
- Pupil's family or representatives - in case of emergencies such as a health matter
- Follow on schools or further education - that a pupil attends after leaving the school in the public interest of delivering education
- Educators and examining bodies – necessary for our education function
- Local forums with schools and relevant Local Authority representatives which support in-year fair access processes and support managed moves between schools
- Public Health England – via local NHS trusts for health care data collections
- Health and social welfare organisations / third parties – to enable us to comply with our duty of care and safeguarding duties for pupil's wellbeing
- The regulator, Ofsted - to enable it to evaluate the education we provide which is in the public interest
- Suppliers and service providers - to enable them to provide the service we have contracted them for

We may also share personal information with law enforcement or other authorities where required by law, for the prevention and detection of crime, or required to safeguard children, young people or other vulnerable groups.

We are required to share information about our pupils with the Local Authority and the Department for Education under section 3 of The Education (Information About Individual Pupils) (England) Regulations 2013.

Your Rights

Under the GDPR you have rights which you can exercise free of charge which allow you to:

- Know what we are doing with your information and why we are doing it
- Ask to see what information we hold about you (Subject Access Requests)
- Ask us to change any information we hold about you that you think is not accurate or complete
- Object to direct marketing
- Withdraw consent for processing or retaining data (where relevant)

Depending on our reason for using your information you may also be entitled to:

- Ask us to delete information we hold about you
- Have your information transferred electronically to yourself or to another organisation
- Object to decisions that significantly affect you being made by automated means
- Object to how we are using your information
- Stop us using your information in certain ways

We will always seek to comply with your request however we may be required to hold or use your information to comply with legal duties. Please note, your request may delay or prevent us delivering a service to you.

If you would like to exercise a right, please contact the Data Protection Officer.

Contact details

If you have any questions or any concern about our data processing, please raise this with our Data Protection Officer in the first instance.
